“ A year has passed and the whole in my life has not closed even a little bit since I lost my Sissy. I think about her all the time. I remember the early years like when she was just about 6 or 7 and I 2 or 3 and she would get up in the middle of the night and walk with me thru that scary dark Brooklyn Brownstone to the kitchen to get me my milk that I just had to have. She said I was her live baby doll. Then I remember the later years like when she talked me thru how to stop my dishwasher when it decided to break down and flood my kitchen. I didn't realize it when I should have but she was the best Big Sister I could ever ask for. I miss you Kimberly Sims. Please keep watching over your Baby Doll from your place in Heaven. I love you...Rozzie

As I sit here on my bed this morning going back over the years about 40yrs or more i think about my friend, my sister in how we use to have the most fun and crazy conversations that would have us crackering laughing and as adult we did not talk everyday but when we did, we still had fun and laughed for hours on the phone same way after all this years. But the most precious talks we ever had was about our LORD and SAVOIR JESUS CHRIST and for all of these blessings, I will treasure the memory of my sister, my friend, my girl KIMBERLY, forever in my heart. Love and miss her so much, but rest on in the LORD. Bee Cee

“ It seemed like just yesterday that we were talking about my mother's passing over the phone. Life definitely throws curve balls. May you rest in God's eternal grace cousin. Love Ricky Triplett & family
