

Lamarr Vincent Hanson

January 14, 1954 - February 12, 2018

Lamarr Vincent Hanson passed away on February 12, 2018 at New York Presbyterian Methodist Hospital. He was the husband of Rhotaunda Hanson. They shared twenty-three incredible years together.

Lamarr V. Hanson was born in Kings County Hospital Brooklyn, New York, on January 14, 1954. He was the son of Margo Yvonne Little and Eugene Hayward. He attended Samuel J. Tilden High School and then enlisted into the United States Marine Corps. He was employed at Harlem Hospital & Kings County Hospital as a Chef for thirty-two years. He received many awards for his commitment, loyalty and dedication. He retired in December 2015.

He was a member of True Worship Church. He was passionate about fishing, devoted to dancing and took pride in utilizing his talent cooking as a Chef for family occasions. He honored spending time with his children and grandchildren. Lamarr will be remembered and known as the name "Mad Dog," in the Brownsville area of Brooklyn, for his generosity, beautiful smile, outstanding service to the community, enjoying old school music, crazy dancing, and the moments of laughter shared with family and friends.

Lamarr will be lovingly remembered by his wife of 23 years, Rhotanda Hanson and his children, Felicia Garris, Lamarr Ventura Hanson, Cindy Hanson, Elizabeth Yvonne Hanson, Jamel Clark. Lamarr will also be fondly remembered by his grandchildren, Peyton, Elaine, Alicia, Kimora, Jameelah, Generra, Jamel Jr., Kwan, Jermaine, Taj, Cornell, Jaleel, Jamel, Jayden and by mother Margo Y. Little, and by sisters Dorese, Raygene, Virginia, Christine and by brothers Andre, Edwin, Edward, Eugene and numerous sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, extended family and dear friends. Lamarr was predeceased by his father Eugene Hayward, brother Kevin Little and sister Rosemary Little McCloud.
