September 16, 1950 - December 1, 2024

Leona Winn was born from the union of Levie and Alice Winn, on September 16, 1950, in the Jewish Hospital, Brooklyn, New York.

Leona's schooling took place in Brooklyn from elementary to high school, graduating from Erasmus Hall. She married William Clay in 1968. From their union came two children, Zenitra and William Clay.

Leona's first job was with an insurance company. After that she worked in banking and became interested in accounting. Leona loved God and her church, The Greater Allen Cathedral of NY, where she was baptized and worshipped regularly when she lived in Queens, NY. After retiring she relocated to Atlanta, GA and continued to enjoy online services. Leona's love of children resulted in an expansion of her family as she and Zenitra opened their arms and hearts to others. Leona also loved sports especially tennis which she played for many years.

Leona leaves four children to grieve her passing: Zenitra Clay Adams, William

Clay and his companion Nakita Ollivierre, Christopher Clay, and Kayla Clay; plus four grandchildren: Zenitra Williams, Taleiya Ray, Amear Hudson and Trey Javonte; and four greatgrands: Samantha, Serenity, Kaiden and Samara.
