

Lloyd Pinnock

April 13, 1951 - May 26, 2024

Lloyd Macmillan Pinnock (affectionately known as Rocker P) was born on April 13, 1951, in Dias, Hanover, Jamaica West Indies, to parents Edna McLean and Cephias Pinnock. He attended primary school in Dias, and at the age of 20, he migrated to the United States to join his mother in Brooklyn, NY. The Lord called Lloyd to rest on Sunday, May 26, 2024.

Lloyd was a loving brother, uncle, cousin, and friend to the people in his life. His zest for cooking made him a self-taught chef. He utilized these chef skills in many Caribbean restaurants in Brooklyn. He also enjoyed entertaining family and friends when they all came over to eat, talk, and laugh. Lloyd was known for his humor and always had people around him laughing hysterically with his funny jokes. He had a nickname for everyone, especially his nieces and nephews. His hobbies included playing dominoes, listening to music, dancing, and playing his favorite songs such as “night nurse”, “stealing love”, “send me the pillow that you dream on”. He loved the oldies. Whenever friends and family were around or on a weekend night, you could always find him at a domino table having fun. He was very easy-going and never allowed life’s problems to bog him down.

Although Lloyd didn't have children of his own, he was very instrumental in taking care of his nieces, nephews, and some of his cousins. He had a deep love for children and ensured they were always fed, and he would help their parents with babysitting and picking up the young ones from school when the parents couldn't do so. This was just his way of loving and caring for his family. Lloyd leaves to mourn his sister, Ritinella Phillips (Wilton), brother, Glendon Grant, Sr. (Sophia); a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, and cousins. He will be deeply missed by all his family and friends. May His Soul Rest in Peace.
