

Lola Sarah White

February 9, 1937 - October 25, 2016

Hear my cry O God,
Listen to my prayer;
From the end of the earth I call to you when my heart is faint.
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I .

Mrs. Lola Sarah White was born February 9, 1937 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Mr. Henry Purnell and Mrs. Winifred Mae Purnell. She was the youngest of three siblings (Her late sister Orangie White and her late brother Trusdale Beloti). She resided in Queens New York until her demise on October 25, 2016.

Lola attended schools in Brooklyn. While in High School she assisted her own mother with her education and whose dream of becoming a beautician was fulfilled.

She was a nurturing mother to her children as well as to family and friends. Her greatest passion was sewing. She sewed most of her children's clothing in the early years. During her career as a seamstress, she made formal attire, did alterations and made special garments for family members.

On August 25, 1977 she married Lawrence White. The union brought two loving families together as one. This unconditional bond flourished as husband and wife devotion to one another grew. As a homemaker, she also spent many hours caring for children. A free spirited woman, she loved the outdoors. Activities such as going to the zoo, aquarium, and amusement parks were her greatest joy as it meant that the family was together. Cooking for large family gatherings was another of her pleasures. Later in life she enjoyed going to Casino's and traveling with her husband. They both enjoyed hitting the buffets as well as IHOP, City Island and Red Lobster. Over the years Lola's health started to decline and as it worsened, her husband Lawrence's attentiveness, patience and love increased.

She joins her deceased son Charles A Belote. She leaves to mourn her loving husband of 39 years, Lawrence White. Her children Winifred M. Belote, Bernice Augustine, and Lola Burden (Charles). Also left to mourn are her Grandchildren, Bernice Erwin, LaTisha Williams, Steven Augustine Jr. Maurice Augustine, Anita Williams, Deborah Burden, Jimmy Newland Jr., Timothy White, Orangie White, and Easter Coleman. Her great grandchildren Maurice Augustine Jr., Amare Laney and Xavier Hines Jr. Cousins Eugene Floyd (Barbara), Effie Floyd, Gregory Floyd, and Dolores White. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Sadly you are gone from here but you will remain our hearts forever.

“ Dear Mrs. White,

I am blessed to have known you and been apart of your life these past 2-3 years. A great person, mother, grandmother, friend, Wife and that will never go unnoticed. A voice that will take you from a bad day to a great day. An Smile that will light up the entire room. You will be dearly missed! But I know your sleeping and watching over your family. To the family treasure the thoughts, stories and memories and they will live forever and live through you'll. It's never going to be easy but you must take it one day at a time. One will never be the same as the other. Be there for one another and love and support each other.

“ *Winnie and family,
Your mom was so special because of how you spoke of her.
Treasure those thoughts and memories as they will last a lifetime.
She will be sorely missed but always smile when you think of her because a mother's love never dies...it's always within.*

“ Mrs. White, I hope you are now at peace and free from any pain. You will be greatly missed. Having known you for well over 30 years, I always enjoyed being in your presence and seeing your bright smile. Please watch over Lola and the girls and I'll make sure to do the same down here. Love you! Lori

“ Dear Mrs. White (Mom),
I can remember it like it was yesterday, our first meeting. I came with Lola and the girls to a family cookout back in 2000. I must admit at first, I was nervous because we (Lola and I) had just met and I was not sure the family was ready to meet me. After a very short period of time, you started talking to me and the nervousness went away. I mainly remember this talk because at the end you said “I think you will be good for my daughter because I can tell by your interaction with her that you will take care of her.” At this moment, I felt that you welcomed me as your son.

So now 16 years later, a marriage and granddaughter I guess you were RIGHT.

I will miss our talks, your smile, and your loving hugs. I will forever cherish our last hug on Oct. 2nd.

With your job complete here, Rest easy my Dear Mother.

Love your son
Charles
