“ To Lisa, unfortunately I am not able to be there for you. Just know that I am there in spirit. I continue to pray for you and your family for strength and courage during this very difficult time. May your memories you shared with your dad and love one Help heal your broken hearts. May you think of some of the things that made you smile or even laugh out loud. When you think of him and look to the sky, you feel him smiling down on you from God's heavenly Kingdom letting you know he's okay. My condolences, Peace and blessings to all of you always Ros Davis
