

Lonnie H. Dixon

January 10, 1937 - December 11, 2017

Lonnie H. Dixon was born on January 10, 1937 in Brewton, Alabama to Harry and Nancy Dixon. He was the last survivor of eleven children. He attended school in Pensacola, Florida. Later in his adult years he moved to New York where he worked as a short order cook, and eventually he became a Longshoreman, where he earned the nickname "Young Blood" from his friend Paul.

After thirty eight years of service on the water front Lonnie retired in January 1993. Lonnie loved to play scratch off and lottery, fishing, and listening to oldies but goodies. He also enjoyed traveling with his wife. Lonnie loved his children, grands and family, and would do whatever he could for them, he couldn't tell them no. Lonnie was a kind hearted man and would give you the shirt off his back if you asked for it.

Lonnie will be greatly missed by his family and friends. Lonnie accepted Jesus as his personal Lord and savior.

He leaves to cherish his memory his faithful, devoted wife Brenda Dixon, his daughter Lindy (Paul son in law), son Lonnie Jr., (daughter in law Brenda), son Lionel (daughter in law LaShawna), daughter Latanya (son in law Omar). Six grandchildren; Juanita, Derrick, Danisha, Lonnie III, Tiye, Lionel and a spiritual son John aka Puerto Rico. His brothers and sisters who predeceased him; Jack, Harry, Susie, Louis, Cleo, Emily, Willie Jewel, Travis, Margaret, Lelia. Best friend Paul and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

May he rest in peace.
