“ MY deepest condolence goes to my cousins, and to the family. May God comfort your hearts with peace, knowing that He's called aunt Ellen home, to rest in His own everlasting, and eternal life home, loving her always. Knowing this promise of God, and keeping it in our minds, and in our hearts, may she rest in God's peace.

“ No words can ever comfort in times like this. One thing for sure your race (Ellen Mable Allen) is complete. Nothing is left undone. The concerns of this world, has nothing to do with the next world. Everything is in accord to the divine will of God. One day our race will be complete and we will graduate to eternal glory. It is not over. It is the beginning. We will meet again in the House of the Lord who is always merciful and loving.
