“ To the family,

Marguerite was a spirited woman in every sense of the word and we enjoyed her company immensely. Her ability to listen and share was of particular note. She loved to read and she loved detective stuff in particular. It is because of her that I own the TV series 'Monk'. To this day, whenever I watch an episode of 'Monk' I find myself thinking of Marguerite; imagining her laughing, hoping that she is watching too. She also loved hats and even sent one to me just because I admired the way that she looked in them. What a classy lady. She was also generous with her time and I enjoyed our phone conversations. Her grace and loving kindness exhibited an underlying strength that we can only hope to aspire to. She will be in our hearts and memories always and we are grateful to her for the example she has set in our lives. We pray that her strength helps to see you all through this difficult time of bereavement.

“ Marguerite - hot comb, Pennsylvania, tears. Loved that she loved you and yours so much and could understand when we soaked her and my mom's cigarettes in water, we were trying to do the right thing...

*Oh! Leslie, my heart is broken hearing of your dear mother transition.
She was very special and welcoming. Now she can be with her husband in paradise! My sincere condolences to you and your loved ones! Kisses and hugs! Sadikisha*
