

Marion Van Walker Jr.

March 2, 1953 - February 1, 2025

Marion passed peacefully from this life the afternoon of February 1 st , 2025. Marion was born March 2nd , 1953 at Wadsworth Hospital in Manhattan to Marion Van Walker Sr and Zorina Walker. He grew up in North Babylon, NY and resided in Brooklyn, NY for the majority of his adult life. Marion was one of eight children, the second son born to Zorina Walker and he had two brothers and five sisters. He lost his soulmate, Lizzie Denise Pearson when his two daughters were young and became the sole parent for Monique and Dominique Walker. As a young man he was known for being a well-groomed, responsible and caring son who went on to attend college at Old Westbury, play tennis, and drove an MG that he took excellent care of. He was a valued employee of Estee Lauder for over 25 years before going on to a career in photography. He is survived by his two daughters, Monique & Dominique, his son Jevonne, his grandchildren Maliyah Lizzie, Avaya Denise and Avion Legend, his sisters and brother Dorcia,

Cheryl and Sterling and several nieces and nephews-Trina, Leah, Nitosha, Sakinah, Dana, Shara, Leah, Changa, Shayne, James, Ivor, Bernard, Aaron and Frankie.

Marion had many gifts and was knowledgeable about spiritual matters and holistic healing.
