

Mary Lee Smith

April 5, 1923 - May 21, 2008

OBITUARY

Mary Lee Smith, beloved daughter of Ora Lee and Clifton Ridley was born in Saluda, South Carolina.

Mary Lee united in matrimony to Norman Smith. Mary was blessed with Norman Smith Jr., (deceased), Phyllis Hunter (New York City), Minister Johnnie Smith (Roxbury, Massachusetts), David Smith (deceased), Yolanda Smith (Georgia), and Richard Smith (Brooklyn).

Her care giving nature led her to work at Kings County Hospital where she retired after thirty~five years of service.

She was a devoted member of St. Paul's Community Baptist Church until her illness. Mary was also an active volunteer of the Tenants' Patrol of the Vandalia Houses.

Mary Lee leaves to celebrate her going home: her children, her sister Magdaline Lane of Macon, Georgia, her sons-in-law: Dennis Hunter and Stanley Jenkins, her daughters-in-law: Mary Smith, Denise Grant and Martha Daniels, twenty~three grandchildren, twenty~one great grandchildren and twenty~seven great~great grandchildren, best friend forever: Evelyn Cain and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
