

Ms. Nora Bibbins

November 13, 1963 - August 19, 2016

Nora Ladora Olympia Bibbins was born on November 13, 1963 in Brooklyn, New York to Leona Nellie Bibbins (Mason) and Edward Bibbins. She was born sixth out of seven children and oftentimes was the most precocious of the bunch.

She attended elementary, intermediary and high school in Brooklyn where she participated in chorus and Track and Field until an ankle injury derailed her dreams of being the next Flo Jo. Sidelined with a broken ankle led her to realize her true talent of caring for and teaching children. Soon after high school she gained employment at Diann's Daycare for several years until she moved to Aberdeen, Maryland and became employed at both Hall's Cross Roads Elementary and The Boys & Girls Club, and soon thereafter Saks Fifth Avenue.

Her infectious smile, comedic timing, warm demeanor, and philanthropy were welcomed by many and will be missed by all.

She is preceded in death by her mother Leona Nellie Bibbins, sister Florence Bibbins, father Edward Bibbins, nephew Nicholas Bibbins, and aunt Thelma Rose.

She is survived by her daughter, Shaquonda Bibbins-Blakes; siblings: Senora

Bibbins, Edwards Bibbins, Beverly Potts, Anthony Bibbins, Ugertha Bibbins, Darryl Bibbins, and Debra Johnson Pettaway; aunts Eva Westbrook and Dorothy Garris, and a host of nieces and nephews especially Namron Bibbins, Jonathan Moore, Brittany Roberts, Justin Skeete, Joshua and Khai McNally-Bibbins, Joshua Potts, Thor and Othinn Bibbins, numerous cousins, friends and one special pup Diggy Bibbins.
