“ Blessings Family and Friends

Norma was a shining light in Re entry; she carried a lot of brothers over the threshold. Norma was my mentor when i first came to re entry. She was very helpful and shared her knowledge and resources; she even put me on to wheat grass which we drank every morning. The thing that stands out to me the most is her beautiful white smile and that streak of gray hair; Norma had a wonderful smile and when she smiled it was genuine. Norma will be missed.

May the Most High keep Norma under His covenant of strength power love and light.

Many blessings to the family; I pray for your strength through this time of sorrow and loss.

Ms. Connie Johnson with love and light

“ At conferences you would always leave students at LaGuardia Community College in awe after sharing your amazing life story of struggle, resilience, and success. Later as an Adjunct lecturer, your classes became an extension of your life’s mission: to become a source of knowledge and healing in dealing with our fractured system of criminal justice.

While working together at the Brooklyn DA’s ComALERT program, you often became my “secret weapon” during our many site visits with agency partners. During sticky negotiations you would completely disarm administrators with your extensive knowledge and informed opinion on the project at hand....delivered with charm, enthusiasm, and always with style!

Years later, ComALERT clients and agency colleagues still speak of you with uncommon admiration, appreciation, and respect. A true community superstar!

Norma, I started out as your boss. Because of all that you proved yourself to be, I happily became your mentor and your friend. Knowing you has been one of my life’s most cherished blessings and your everlasting presence will always have a special place in my heart. Thanks.

With Love,
John

Thank you for sharing this. What a beautiful legacy Norma has left. At birth we all have “just a name” but at death we have a reputation. We appreciate you telling us what we’ve missed in Norma’s life. If you have a video clip of any of her lectures, we’d love to see her in action 💕💕

From the day I received the call, I'm in disbelief. There are no words to express, I'm heart broken💔 Your Titi Ann loved you beyond words. You have joined all the loved ones we have lost. They say don't question Gods plan, but I find myself doing it all the time especially when love ones are taken from us way too soon. Even though our lives went in different directions as we grew older we were always just a phone call away. Norma you will always be my Brooklyn cousin, along with your sister Tricia. Love you forever and always. May your baby girl, and the rest of the family find peace knowing you will forever be a guardian Angel. The beautiful lady you are will live in our hearts 💕 forever and always

My sister, my other half...you and I have come from a life of struggle, pain and fear. Somehow, we always found a way to make the best of it. You wiped my tears and I wiped yours. As we got older, you taught me how to be strong, how not give up and how to be a better person. Because of you, I am the person I am today. And, although we went through our changes in life, I knew you were always there for me. I'll miss our long talks, our laughs and most of all, our dances together. I'm grateful for the time we spent together. I'll cherish our last moments forever and wherever I go, whatever I do, I know you'll always be with me. I love you Norma.

“ Dear Cousin Trisha & Family,
We are truly sorry for your loss. Norma was a special person that touched the hearts of many.
It's been said that Tears are Memories that sometimes run down our face....we know you've shed many...Some have even said that there is a “sacredness to tears. No words need to be spoken. They speak more eloquently than 10,000 languages. They are messengers of overwhelming grief, and unspeakable love.” We look forward to the words recorded at Rev 21:3,4 “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” May this promise bring you tremendous comfort at this difficult time.
Our Warmest Love,
Kristie & Stephen Campagna
