

Philip Achan

September 18, 1986 - November 6, 2025

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Philip Achan, who left this world on November 6, 2025, at the age of 39.

Born in Brooklyn and rooted in his Guyanese heritage, Philip carried with him the values of family, loyalty, and generosity throughout his life. He was a devoted son to his parents, a cherished brother to his sister, and a treasured friend to many who were fortunate enough to know him.

Philip's life was defined by his kindness, selflessness, and unwavering loyalty. He had a beautiful soul and a big, generous heart, always putting others before himself. Protective yet humble, smart yet funny, Philip's presence lit up every room he entered. His laughter, warmth, and love for his family and friends will forever remain etched in their hearts. He was deeply affectionate toward those he loved, never hesitating to show care, comfort, and devotion in ways that made everyone around him feel valued and cherished.

Though his time with us was far too short, Philip's legacy is one of love, compassion, and devotion. He leaves behind a circle of family and close friends who will continue to honor his memory by living with the same generosity and humility that he embodied. His spirit continues to inspire all who knew him.

Philip Achan will be remembered not only for the life he lived, but for the love he gave. His memory will remain a guiding light, honoring the beauty of a soul defined by selfless love and tender affection.

“ My Dearest Brother,

You were the one who gave me my name. You loved and protected me, always trying to keep me safe. You were the most affectionate, caring, and loving person I knew. You never missed a chance to show and tell me—and our parents—how much you cared for and loved us. I cherished your hugs, your jokes, and all the memories and laughter we shared.

You were loyal, selfless, and forgiving. From such a young age, you carried the weight of responsibility, taking care of our family and supporting us. Even when life was heavy on your shoulders, you never let it show, because you were always looking out for us and putting our needs before your own. You never wanted us to worry.

Though you had a tough outer shell, inside you were the kindest, most loving person, with a heart of gold. You always made sure I was okay, reminded me to stand tall and strong, and told me how proud you were of me as your little sister. You always said, “No matter what, we’re always brother and sister.”

Even though we were nine years apart, we leaned on each other. I looked to you for guidance and as an example throughout my childhood. You were the smartest person I knew. I remember you teaching me how to defend myself, playing video games and letting me win so I wouldn’t feel bad, showing me how to swing a baseball bat, sneaking me candy, and always bringing food home for us.

We lost a beautiful soul far too soon. It hurts that we can’t grow old together and that I lost my only brother. You were always my protector, and because of you, I am standing here today. I promise to honor your memory, to look after Mom, and to stay strong and keep going for you—because I know that’s what you would have wanted.

You will forever live in my heart, my memories, and my spirit. I know you are no longer suffering, that you are finally at peace. I look forward to the day we are reunited, but until then, I know you'll always be with me.

I love you with all my heart.

“ In Loving Memory of My Cousin Philip,

I write this with immense sadness and heartbreak. Philip was a kind-hearted, genuine soul whose warmth and light touched everyone around him. Our childhood memories replay vividly in my mind — each one a reminder of the laughter, love, and joy we shared. He was one of my favorite cousins, and I will always cherish the bond we had.

I would give anything for just five more minutes with him — to tell him once more how much I love him and how deeply he is missed. Though his time here was far too short, his spirit and the love he gave will live on in our hearts forever.

May his beautiful soul rest in eternal peace.

*Forever in my heart,

“ In Loving Memory of Philip

Philip was one of our dearest friends. He was tough on the outside, but inside he had a heart of pure gold. You'd never think he would remember every birthday, no matter the time or distance, but he always did. His messages were always filled with the kindest wishes and the truest words: that he loved us, and we loved him right back.

He was part of our family and loved our kids with all his heart. Our last messages to each other were ones of love, a reflection of the bond we were so lucky to share.

If there's one thing to be said about Philip, it's that he was fiercely protective of those he truly loved. Not everyone got to see that side of him, but we were truly blessed to have known it and to have known him.

He loved his mom, dad, and dear sister more than anything; they were his world. We know he's watching over them, and all of us, from heaven.

Philip will be deeply missed, but his love and spirit will remain with us forever. God has surely gained an angel.

*With Sincerest Love,
Adrian, Dimple, & Family*
