

Robert Lee Brown

August 14, 1940 - March 7, 2013

Robert Lee Brown was the youngest of five children born to the union of Almon and Pearl Brown. He was born in Savannah, Georgia and relocated to Brooklyn, New York. He joined the New Frontier Baptist Church. Robert and Armecia were married on September 6, 1970. He became a Mason joining the Masonic Lodge 26 in 1975. Robert retired from the City of New York Department of Parks in 1994.

Robert was very outgoing fun loving person and always willing to help anyone. He had a great personality and these traits are quite visible in his daughters. Robert loved to sing and dance and mastered both. Since April 2001, due to failing health, Robert resided at the Marcus Garvey Rehabilitation Center. On January 10, 2013, he became ill and was transferred to Interfaith Medical Center where he expired.

Robert leaves the following love ones to celebrate his life: Armecia (wife); daughters: Joi Brown (Lamont Jackson) (Hampton, Virginia) and Robin Brown Chambers (Walter) (Atlanta, Georgia); son Robert Brown Jr., (Savannah, Georgia); sisters: Alfreida Ferris (Augusta, Georgia), Naomi Brown (Arizona), Clementine Jones (Michigan), Lillie Mae Edwards (Savannah, Georgia) and Delores Sledge (Savannah, Georgia); brothers: Julian Jackson Brown (Rebecca) (Augusta, Georgia), Freeman (Top) Brown (Linda) (South Carolina), Carl (Jim) Brown (Nell) (Savannah, Georgia); grandson Spencer

Wiley (Texas) and granddaughter Taylor Jackson (Hampton, Virginia) a host of godchildren, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

Robert was from a very large family most of his older siblings have preceded him.

Tribute Wall

“ Robert Lee Brown

November 11, 2022 at 12:38 PM

I miss you Daddy. Joi. Uncle Top, and Uncle Jackson are there resting in heaven as well. God is blessing us.

Robin Brown - August 08, 2023 at 06:35 AM