In Loving Memory of Roberto Perez-Cruz

Roberto Perez-Cruz was born on April 21, 1957, in Isabela, Puerto Rico, to Demetrio Perez and Matilde Perez-Cruz. The ninth of nineteen children, he grew up surrounded by the love, noise, and joy of a big, close-knit family.

As a young man, Roberto made cherished memories in a Brooklyn brownstone before settling in New Jersey, where he raised his own family with devotion and pride.

For more than 20 years, he served as a Distribution Associate in the Materials Management Department at Jersey Shore University Medical Center. His steady work ethic, kindness, and good humor earned him the respect of everyone who worked alongside him.

Roberto embraced life with a full heart. He was a gifted cook who loved sharing meals with family and friends, a devoted reader of newspapers, a traveler, and a passionate coin collector who found beauty in life's small treasures. Most of all, he cherished time with his grandchildren, family, and friends—especially on sunny days at the beach.

He leaves behind the love of his life of nearly thirty years, Joanmarie Carlone; his daughter Maria and sons Roberto and Dominique; and his grandchildren Ryan, Kaleb, Ezana, and Eleni. He is also survived by many brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, and countless friends who will forever hold him close.

Roberto's kindness, humor, and generous spirit will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.

“ I am so very sorry for the tragic untimely loss of dear Roberto. My heart is broken and with profound sadness I extend my sincere and deepest sympathy to Joanmarie, Roberto, Dominique and the entire Perez families. Please know, I too share your grief.

To my dear Roberto... you had a gift of love, life and laughter which you shared with everyone whose lives you touched. You literally lit up a room when you walked in with your light and laughter. You made the good days brighter and were a light in the difficult darker times. Thank you dear Roberto for being incredibly kind and thoughtful; for sharing your love and life so freely with all of us. I remember the very first time I met you and over those years you created a bond with us that can never be broken. You are the one who lit up Joanmarie's life and filled her heart with love and devotion as she was the one who did the same with you. It was so beautiful to witness over the years how the two of you cared for and about each other. Our hearts are forever etched with your presence Roberto and your memory will never fade...you remain with us always. We live you! May you rest in eternal peace.
