

Mr. Rodney Laquan Parker

August 23, 1975 - May 19, 2016

RODNEY LAQUAN PARKER passed into eternal rest on May 19, 2016. Rodney was born on August 23, 1975 in Brooklyn, New York. Born in Kings County Hospital, he was the youngest of seven sisters and brothers, born to the late Clarence Parker and Rosetta Parker.

He attended PS 327 in Brooklyn and graduated from MS 275. He received his diploma out of the High School Redirection in Brownsville.

In 2002, Rodney Parker married Chandra Parker. In this union, were his children, his oldest son Dontay Parker, his youngest Sharif Parker, as well as a daughter Chaniqua.

Rodney was a hard working man. His first job was at Pathmark followed by UPS, School Safety, and his final job was with corrections.

He enjoyed collecting action figures, baseball cards and hats. His hobbies included basketball, fishing and carrying his first son with him everywhere. He was also known for being stylish and washing his car by hand 24 hours a day. One of his favorite places to go was Canarsie Pier. He loved to cook and always had his things in order.

He made people laugh with his sarcasm. He was everybody's role model but to his family he was a superhero. Super as Superman, smart as Batman and as funny as Spiderman.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: his wife Chandra Parker; sons: Dontay and Sharif; daughter Chaniqua; grandkids: Eli and San'niyah; sisters: Cynthia, Decher and Lecia; brothers: Reginald, Lendon and Anthony (deceased); sisters-in-law: Rosetta and Shirley Parker; nephews: Reggie, Calvin, Danny (deceased), Mark, Walter, AJ, Andrew, Jamari, Lenny and Lathan; nieces: Jala, Daysha, Reasey, Jamiyah and many cousins as well as a host of co-workers and friends.

Although he is gone he will never be forgotten.
