Rosalind Weaver 56, was born September 23, 1969 to the late Ophelia Catherine Mims and Clifton Weaver. The youngest of 5 children. She was born in Brooklyn New York and later made Harlem her home.

Rain the nickname primarily called spent many years in the healthcare field and in customer service roles where she was known for her dedication and ability to connect with people from all walks of life. Although her illness kept her from working in recent years, the care and kindness she showed others through her career left a lasting impression on many.

Rain found joy in the simple moments in life. She enjoyed spending time with family, enjoying good food and sharing laughter with those around her. Always up for a good hand of blackjack, a poker or bingo game. Rain had a lively spirit and had a great sense of humor that could keep everyone laughing all night long. She loved to dance and brought energy and joy wherever she went.

One milestone in Rain's life that truly reflects her character was the love and responsibility she embraced for her family. When her sister struggled with addiction Tain stepped in to support her niece and nephew Sakinah Weaver and Dominick Weaver. She was the one who brought Sakinah and Dominick home from the hospital after their births and went on to raise Sakinah as her daughter. This act of love and commitment spoke to the depth of her generosity and devotion to those she cared about.

Rain is survived by her beloved daughter Sakinah Weaver, her cherished granddaughter Imon Muse , her partner Scott Bullock, her sister Brenda Weaver, her Brother Howard Revelle, her nieces and nephews Michelle Weaver, Tomeshia Weaver, Dominick Weaver, Sabrina England, Lakota Assent, and Joseph Watford Jr. Her great nieces and nephews Fatima and Machai Lucky, Javonte Weaver, Harmony and Legacy Weaver, Autumn Freeman, Melvin Freeman Jr, and Anthony and Demetrius Smallwood. Her goddaughter Kenyatta Crum. She also leaves behind a very special friend more like a sister Samantha Stedman and many extended family and friends too numerous to name .
