February 16, 1962 - February 15, 2017

Loving and Beautiful Memories of Rose Scott

On February 16th, 1962 God created a very special and outspoken person who was loved unconditionally. Rose Marie Scott was the 8th of nine children to the late Ellen Scott. Born in Spanish Harlem but raised in Brooklyn, she completed high school at Thomas Jefferson annex.

She became a home health aide caring for the disable. She worked numerous jobs until she began her career as an E.M.T./E.M.S. Also a member with the fire department she became close with a lot of coworkers and treated most of them like family.

Rose Scott ' A.K.A. ' Wee-Wee, was a mother, sister, aunt, cousin & friend. She was a loving person that didn't mind meeting new people or to lend a helping hand to whom ever. She was a very Out spoken to and to the point.

Rose was a person that will make you laugh. She would've came to your rescue in your time of need. She would've came to pick you up whether you was ready or not. Rose was a prankster as well. That was her way of make you laugh.

As her career prospered as an E.M.S. With the fire department she was 1 of the first responders to 9-1, which lead her to an early retirement. She fought a good fight. However the lord seen fit to call her home.

Rose was proceeded in death by her mother Ellen Scott, her oldest brother Otis Scott, Her son Otis Scott Jr. A very special person she loved and held deeply in her heart Stacey A. brown, one brother in law Alfred Schuler and her childhood friend Yvonne Davis.

Rose leaves to cherish her memories With her sons; Malcolm Scott, Clifton Meade, Onile Scott and Devin Scott. Her Daughters; Niyah Scott, Leassia Scott and A very special and loving daughter in law Mrs. Christine Meade that she loved dearly. All reside in Brooklyn N.Y. .

“ My deepest sympathy to the Rose Scott Family. I remember my last meeting with Rose at Changing Lives Christian Center in the Ladies Room ... seeing her with tears in her eyes, I asked her if she was alright? Knowing deep in my Spirit that she was not, I did not wait for her to respond, I just hugged her, kissed her and told her that I loved her. That was the very last time I ever saw her.
