

Ruby Crosby

January 31, 1941 - December 23, 2015

RUBY CROSBY was born on January 31, 1941 in Green Pond, South Carolina to the late Ezzie and Ida Crosby. After a prolonged illness, Ruby was called home to be with the Lord on December 23, 2015. She was surrounded by her loving family during the last days of her life.

Ruby Crosby moved from South Carolina with her mother as a child to New York. In high school, she learned and mastered bookkeeping. This skill allowed her to excel and move up the ranks to become an Accounts Payable Officer at Columbia University. Ruby retired from Columbia University in 2008, after 30 plus years as their employee. Ruby was a witty, outspoken, fun loving and no nonsense person who enjoyed cooking and hosting dinners, parties and barbecues. Family and friends loved Ruby's cooking, and would travel from all the boroughs to her home when she announced having a gathering. Ruby also enjoyed playing bingo and card games. She inspired people to smile, laugh and just have a good time. However, when you didn't do the right thing by her or her family she would curse you out so bad it brought tears to your eyes and an ass kicking followed, if necessary. Nevertheless, Ruby had a huge heart in that she would give you her last if you needed it. She leaves a void in this world that no one can fill and she will be truly and dearly missed.

Ruby Crosby leaves to cherish her memory, one daughter Jasmine Miller (Jim Miller), son James Riddick, ten grandchildren: Brandon Miller, Briana Miller, James Edwards, Jarett Edwards, Laron Stewart, Tyana Livingston, Jasmine Livingston, Javonny McNeil, Miracle Riddick, and N'vell Riddick; one great grandson: Elijah Miller; two sisters: Minnie Holmes and Ruth Morales; one Aunt: Bernice Dixon; one goddaughter: Tracey Lewis; and Godson Demetrius Harris. Ruby also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
