

Samuel Watson Lee

October 25, 1944 - March 26, 2016

Samuel Watson Lee affectionately called “Sonny” was called to eternal rest on Saturday, March 26, 2016 at the Veterans Hospital, Brooklyn, New York. Samuel was born on October 25, 1944 in Cheraw, South Carolina to the late Wallace and Marie Lee. Sonny graduated from Long High School, Cheraw, South Carolina in May 1964. He joined the United States Army in June 1964 where he held the rank of Private E1. He served in the military from 1964 through 1967 receiving an Honorable Discharge. Sonny served in the Vietnam War receiving the Bronze Star and several other medals and awards. After serving four years in the Army he settled in Brooklyn, New York. He held various jobs from the United States Postal Service, New York Telephone Company and finally the Williamsburg Flooring where he worked for twenty five years before retiring.

Sonny was a kind and gentle man. Throughout his life his loyalty and devotion to family and friends was evident to all. He made friends easily. Sonny was an avid fisherman and sport fan. Sonny centered himself around his family being a good uncle to his nieces and nephews encouraging them through their childhood. He enjoyed being with family and friends, but mostly enjoyed taking road trips with his family. All road trips were not complete without stopping in Cheraw, South Carolina to visit his brothers. In spite of his illness, he never wanted pity. He lived his life one day at a time always looking toward tomorrow.

To cherish the precious memories of Sonny are his sisters and brothers: Lorea (Theodore) Gaines, Mell Parron, Dotsie Lee, Wallace Lee, Earnest (Mary Lou) Lee, Barbara Lee, Simon (Easter) Lee, Charlotte Lee, Lutricia Lee, Linda Lee and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I wish to extend my deepest sympathy to the Lee family. My memories of Soony always include my brother Larry. They were close friends and co workers for many years at Williamsburg. Sonny put up the good fight and is now in a better place. I know you are grieving and will for some days to come. Your memories of him will make you smile and some will make you sad. Joy will come in the morning knowing that now he is with The Father. Condolences from the Sahadeo Family
