

Ms. Savannah Sutton

July 4, 1925 - February 22, 2015

Savannah Ruth Sutton was born on July 4, 1925 in Trenton, South Carolina to the late Ned and Annie Richardson.

She received her education in Trenton, and relocated to New York at an early age.

It is there where she met and married the late Johnnie Sutton. From that union came four children: Lorraine, Johnnie Willie, Nathaniel and Annie Ruth.

Savannah was a stay at home mom, who devoted her time and love to her children.

The family settled in Brooklyn, New York where she joined and became a faithful member of Redeem Church of God...Later to be given the position as Mother of the church...Savannah loved the Lord and she loved her church family, she never missed a service. Being the Warrior that she was, she often traveled with the church to other church functions and events, she did that until her health started to fail. She was the recipient of numerous certificates and awards.

God saw a lily ripe for the picking and dispatched His angel and called Savannah Ruth home.

Savannah Sutton was preceded in death by her husband Johnnie Sutton, her son Johnnie Willie known as Sharif, her brothers Ollie and Adel Richardson.

Savannah loved her family dearly, and her memories will be cherished by her daughters: Lorraine (Ronald) Whitson, of Starkville, MS, Annie Ruth Atkins, and son Nathaniel (Deborah) both of Brooklyn, New York.

The love of her life were her grandchildren: Vernon aka Spunk or Love. Robert aka Pop, Shanna, Ronnie, Steven, Nathan, Jonathan and Elijah; great grandchildren: Taleai, Vernon, Lenny, Natasha, Robert, Rasean, Rihanna, Salassie, Nathan aka NC or Tray and Chenelle; great-great grandchildren grandchildren: Alasia and Camron.

She also leaves to cherish her memories many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
