Rest in Peace to my cousin/sister Sheila Marie Bridges. When Tonia died you and I became close just like she and I was. Our bond is irreplaceable . I remember our weekends were filled with going shopping on the Ave , getting our hair and nails done, going back to your house watching movies and listening to your mother yell. Lol. I confided in you just like I did when Tonia was alive. I remember you calming my crying baby by putting him on your big jugs as auntie called them . Ever since that day you and Mike were bonded. He has been quiet ever since he heard the news , but he probably broke down in private. He was your baby. Then, came Tiana and you went crazy buying up the whole Children's Place. I think I received like four big boxes from you and auntie for her. You hauled those heavy ass boxes down Flatbush Ave in the cold to make sure Tiana knew she had people who loved her . Or, lets talk about when I went into labor and delivered Tiana by myself . When I called you and the call dropped...you was hysterical and crying thinking that I had passed out or died . Girl you sent everybody to the house all emergency responders was at the house. The only people we were missing was the FBI and the CIA. Lol. Or , what about the time I got fed up and went into hiding and yall couldnt reach me you and auntie was about to call the FBI LOL CRAZY. I had 24 hrs to return yall call or yall was sending the Feds to come get me. Chile we have endless memories. I love you and ill forever miss Kee leave me alone and get out of my room. I love you but, you gotta go. LOL I always loved annoying you. Our turn ups was real pina coladas and seafood our favorites. You never did tell me what was in that dipping sauce or did you?
