

Ms. Sherry Hudson

May 22, 1963 - March 26, 2017

Obituary

Sherry Bettis Hudson was born on May 22, 1963, to the late Louis and Martha Bettis in Brooklyn, New York. She was the youngest of three children. She graduated from Tilden High School in Brooklyn, New York. She attended New York City College of Technology in Brooklyn, New York and soon after started working for the Department of Sanitation and then for the MTA, as a Bus Operator for the last 25 years.

Sherry was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend; that had a strong faith in God. Sherry was definitely a strong spiritual woman, not afraid to let her beliefs be known. Priding herself with family and helping others. She was quite the therapist, giving advice to any one in distress. Sherry was a phenomenal mother; often referred to by her children as "Mama Bear". Though she was a disciplinarian, she was always loving, nurturing and always right there to guide her children and all who needed her. Sherry was a dedicated person and a role model to many. Sherry was a strong foundation and was taken from us too soon, but the significant impact she has left on us through her words, character, love and presence will be cherished forever. God has definitely prepared a place for her in heaven.

Sherry has left behind to cherish her memories ; her husband Carlton, her children Crystal, Carlique and Ciara, grandchildren Brian and Mason, sisters Ramona and Cecilia , her extended siblings Mateo, Carol, Carlos and Raul, her nieces and nephews Gia, Mateo Bianca, Guilio, Andre, Christian, Ashley, Raul, Lauren, Gabrielle, Branden, Bryan, Garrett , Angelica and Cecilia; and large abundance of family and friends.

OMG! I'm just learning of Sherry passing after years of trying to find her in facebook... We were friends years ago and lost touch after I moved away and list her number. My deepest condolences to family and friends. May she rest in Paradise... I have fond memories of her. May the angels be with you...

My God! I've been looking for Sherry for years. My grandmother was Ms. Martha, her mother's comadre. I spent many days as a child at her home on Woodbine Street. My condolences...
