“ This still seems too surreal, and oh so heartbreaking. You have left an imprint by all those who have loved you but God loves you best Teresa. We are all travellers in this world and none of us are here to stay. I must say you always put your best foot forward and you truly left an impression. I didnt know how heartbroken I really was until I cried alone and broke down. I cried because you were a life line for Celeta Tisha, Jasmine and Dayquan. Also, you were a life line for many others as well. Unexpectedly you have truly made me stronger as lessons in life usually do. Yes Teresa, we all grab your baton after the race to continue your legacy. I call your phone now just to listen to your voice message-just to feel you and hear you one more time.

“ I met Tee as she was affectionately called, when I was the Deputy Director at PJC. We immediately clicked. She was outspoken and knew how to handle situations and circumstances. She loved her family above everything else and always put their needs first. To the family, remember everytime you see a star, Tee will be smiling down at you. Rest on your mansion not built by man my friend. Love you, Debra & Glen Williams
