“ I called her my “Ruby” because she was a jewel and it fit with the first syllable of her last name. She was my girl and I miss her. She is the only living person that had unconditional love for me....a friend to the end. I’m her second son and I’m grateful and proud of that. She’d sing “Ruby doobie-do” when I’d say “Hey my Rub”. She told me “Heaven is my home” so I’ll see her again when it’s my time to visit. Love you Mom.
