“ My condolences to the Smith family and satellite members. Never forget the love she has been given and has returned. Never forget the the times that were spent and awaiting on her return. Now in this moment, at this time never let her go. Hold onto her memories as you would hug her when kissing her hello and smiling when your eyes meet hers in happiness. Forever in your hearts as it beats, Wendy will be the warm feeling of love in your soul and thoughts.

May she live forever in the halls of the family that puts her body to rest. May they find solace in sending her on her journey. For she is at rest and at peace.

“ Wendy was a strong and silent fighter. God fearing, kind hearted and beautiful woman. She will be missed...but never, ever forgotten. I've always loved clouds. Looking up always remind me of family gone smiling down at me. I love you, Wendy.

John 11:24-26 says, Martha said to Him (Jesus) " I know that he (her brother, Lazarus) will rise again in the last day." Jesus said to her, "I AM the Resurrection and the Life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

Revelation 21:3-4: And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, God Himself will be with them and be their God. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

*I believe after your assignment was fulfilled, he called out to you his daughter "Wendy" You were always so pleasant, beautiful smile, and mild. We didn't see you very often, back when I was a child. though when we did see you, your spirit engulfed the room, your smile beautified, your grace.. departed us to soon. We will treasure your life with us, and rejoice knowing that. you were truly an Angel named Wendy, you were just called back, sleep peacefully.
