

Mrs. Willamae Wallace

March 4, 1939 - January 22, 2016

Willamae Wallace peacefully departed her life, while at home, on Friday, January 22, 2016. Willamae was born on March 4, 1939 at Saint Mary's Hospital, Brooklyn, New York. She was welcomed by two loving parents, William and Mabel Jefferson. Willamae was a spirited child. Always on the go and loved being outdoors.

Willamae graduated from Home Making High School in 1957 (currently known as Clara Barton High). After graduating she started working at Liberty Nursing Home on Liberty Avenue in Brooklyn as a Nurses Aide. While working there she met the love of her life, Harry Wallace Jr. They were later married on September 16, 1960. From their union, they had two children, Sharon and Harry.

Willamae returned to school in 1972 attending Kingsboro Community College becoming a registered nurse in 1974. After graduation she started working as a registered nurse at Kings County Hospital in 1975. She retired from Kings County Hospital in 2000. After retirement, she spent her days spending time with her grand and great grandchildren whom she treasured. She spent as much time with them as possible helping to guide and teach them.

Willamae loved to play the slot machines. Atlantic City was her favorite pass time by taking trips with her best friend, Sandra Brown. She also loved playing cards. She was very competitive at this. She also had a passion for butterflies which reminded her of new beginning after a hard winter and fall.

Willamae, also known as “Dimples” touched many lives along the way. She showed a great deal in helping others who needed her help. Willamae’s precious memories will always remain in the hearts of her sister;, Carrie, Louise, Mable, and Theresa; her children Sharon and Harry; her grandchildren and great grandchildren, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Willamae will be greatly missed.
