“ To my Queen and beautiful Wife Yvette Dargan I will never forget you. You meant the world to me, I could honest and whole heartedly say that I’m gonna miss you dearly. Even more so now because I know I will never get to hear the sweet sound of your voice or see that amazing smile that could brighten any room. I will miss you in a way that no words could explain or no one human can image, only you and god knows the remedy to overcome this pain that I endure. All mighty God please give us the strength to get thru these darkest . Sleep in peace My Queen until we meet again. Love always and forever

“ My dear loving Neice , your physical being has left us but the sound of that crazy laughter, our sometimes serious or at times lighthearted conversations will remain in my heart and spirit. My love for you never changed and never will. I pray that you have been granted the peace you are so deserving of. Once the pain from not having you here amongst us has subsided, I will use Our father God’s wonderful gift of memory to enjoy your laughter, our talks and great hugs. Rest in peace my sweet baby. Much love forever, Aunt Betty “One of your biggest Fans. To our family: There is nothing that can change yesterday. We can only use it to be more understanding and loving towards one another today for tomorrow is not promised. Sorry I cannot share our “Bet Bet’s” celebration of life with all of you but I am sending all my love and praying for all hearts to be healed.
