“ Yvonne, I'm privileged and pleased that we shared this journey. I'm sure we've shared others and will share many more. You know what I mean girl. We are, and forever will be kindred spirits. I love you Cuz. Rest in peace. Viv

Time is passing, but I keep coming back to this page. Somehow, you are still here ... I wish we could dine. I wish you could have stayed a little longer, but I am sure that would not have been enough either.

“ What can one say? How do you put on paper a way to convey you feeling of sadness and a sense of loss you have about Yvonne. There was a presence and silent expression of love, caring and compassion she had and presented to all who knew her. There was that constant encouragement she gave to those who were striving to reach their goals in their chosen endeavors. I will miss our times together at family gatherings and thank goodness those wonderful memories cannot be removed from one's mind. God bless you all. I love you Yvonne. Aunt Gloria.

“ We have so many great memories of family events and gatherings over the years...weddings, births, parties, grandchildren, home comings and goings.

We've shared moments of happy times...sad times...loving times...and trying times.

Yvonne, you will always be appreciated for the support you gave to us.

You approached every phase of your life with the utmost of Grace, Dignity and strength.

Your beauty was undeniable and when you walked into a room, it lit up with Love and Light, which was the essence of your being!

YOU WERE OUR “QUEEN B” OF BEAUTY.....AND WE WILL MISS YOU DEARLY

*Love, Light and Prayers to the Family,
Janice Parker Dudley and Family. ❤️❤️❤️*

“ Although I'm away, I extend condolences to my cousin Everett. Yvonne cannot hear me, but I wish to say aloud that I bid your mind, body and soul farewell. I enjoyed laughter with you Yvonne and a spirit of positive encouragement. Your soft smile and calming voice brightened my view of myself with every encounter we shared. I got a chance to see you this past July on your way to the movies with Everett. God acts in mysterious ways, and I am forever grateful to Him for giving Yvonne's graceful encounters for as long as He did.

Rest in peace Yvonne. India, Maya, Terrance and I want to thank you for being there for us. We bless you and may God keep you everlasting!

Love,
Karen

“ Rest in peace, Yvonne. My condolences to Everett and family. You've always been so kind, encouraging and supportive of me and my sister, Maya. It meant the world when you called to check up on me a few months ago in Los Angeles. You just called to say, "Hi," and hoped that I might connect with one of your family friends out there as a collaborator. I'm sorry that was the last moment I was able to share with you. I've always appreciated your light and positivity, and your role in my family. We will miss you deeply, but I know that your soul is in a much better place now.

Love,
India

“ Even before she entered a room, the aura would shift, and you could sense something magical was about to occur. All heads would turn and stare, Yvonne was here. She illuminated light, love, and a legendary beauty. She had a uniqueness of making everyone feel so special, paying attention to every detail of the conversation, and she'd happily share the spotlight with you. That was the magic of my beloved first cousin. Charming, elegant, graceful, witty and authentic with a laugh and hug I shall never forget. Thank you, my dear, for loving us so. Your memory is secure in our hearts.

Cousin Judy (Luther) Ross Stanton
